RUSS CIVIL WAR IN FULL SWAY;
COSSACKS AND CONSTITUTIONAL
DEMOCRATS AGAINST BOLSHEVIKI*Lenine Regime to Be Put to Test; Kaledines and Korotloff Lead Revolt.*CONTROL GOLD AND COAL*Forces Have Been Gathering in Don Region for Some Time Past; Rodianko and Mikuloff Are Assisting Military Reads of Uprising.

By Associated Press.

Civil war has broken out in Russia and the Bolshevik regime apparently will be put to the test. The Petrograd government has issued a proclamation announcing that Generals Kaledines, Korniloff, and Dutov have begun a revolt in southeastern European Russia.

The Bolshevik announcement declares that the Constitutional Democrats are assisting the Helman of the Don Cossacks, and his fellow military leaders, who are said to aim at cutting off food supplies and in setting power from the Black Sea to the Ural mountains, as well as in the Caucasus. Bolshevik troops have been ordered to take the field against the counter-revolutionists.

In Orenburg the Bolshevik leaders have been arrested and the soldiers under them disarmed.

The proclamation of the Bolsheviks announces the Constitutional Democrats, a party and its leaders, including Michael Rodianko, the former president of the Duma, and Paul N. Mikuloff, the former foreign minister. It had not been expected in the European capitals that a strong effort would be made to oust the Bolsheviks from power. For some time General Kaledines has been gathering his forces in the Don region, where he has been joined by former army officers and leaders of the old provisional government and has been reported to hold most of Russia's gold reserve, and he probably controls the Don coal region, and a great portion of the grain growing territory around the Black and Caspian Seas.

NEW PORTUGUESE CABINET.

The uprising in Portugal has resulted in the formation of a new cabinet. The fighting was confined to Lisbon and the immediate neighborhood, the government troops surrendering after two days of hostilities.

BRITISH ON PLATE FRONT.

British and French troops have taken over from the Italians sections of the fighting front between Lake Garda and the Adriatic. The British are stationed along the Upper Piave but the position of the French has not been disclosed.

There has been artillery activity between the Brenza and the Piave, while Italian airplanes and aircraft have been attacking enemy camps and communications behind the lines.

WESTERN FRONT QUIET.

On the front in France there has been no marked infantry activity and artillery action has been confined to the Cambrai and Ypres areas. Outpost encounters and raids have occurred on the Cambrai front and near Lens. A German effort to enter the French lines near the Verdun region has been repulsed by the French with considerable casualties to the enemy.

GERMAN GENERALS SIGN TRUCE WITH RUSS-ARMY.

BERLIN, Dec. 10.—Hungarian infantry in the Piave delta yesterday stormed the Italian bridgehead on the Sile river and took as prisoners more than 200 Italians. It was announced officially today by the German war office.

Military officials of the Central powers have signed an armistice with the Russian and Rumanian armies on the Rumanian front, the war office announced today.

"EXPLOSION" A BLAST*Now Believed to Have Been Set Off by Coal Company Near Point Marion.

The "explosion" which rocked southern Fayette county Saturday, and of which nothing could be learned, is now believed to have been a blast set off by a coal company operating a large steam shovel, stripping coal on the Lynn farm at Fallen Timbers, about a mile north east of Point Marion.

The "explosion" certainly occurred somewhere southwest of Smithfield between 8 and 9 o'clock Saturday morning. Smithfield buildings were shaken, people coming into the town from points three or four miles nearer the explosion knew nothing of where or what it was.

The shovel has an eight-yard dipper and a 90-foot beam, and it cost $75,000. It required 15 or 20 men a month's time to put it in order, after all the parts had been assembled on the ground.

Street Car Men Strike.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 10.—Nearly 300 employees of the Cleveland, Southwestern & Columbus Interurban railway, including about 300 motormen and conductors, went on strike early this morning following the refusal of the company to grant an increase of eight cents an hour. The men refused the company's offer of an increase of four cents an hour.

ROCKWELL DULL AND BEN CAMPBELL, NAVAL RESERVE MEN, HOME*Local Lads Look Fit as Fiddle; Find Work Hard But Like It Just the Same.

Ben Campbell and Rockwell Dull, members of the crew of the U. S. S. Surveyor, stationed off Norfolk, Va., arrived home on Sunday night to spend a week's furlough with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. William Dull. Missing connections at Washington they were 12 hours late getting into Connellsville. They must be back next Monday.

Life in the Naval Reserve, which is called the "mosquito fleet" consists chiefly of hard work, they say, but apparently it agrees with them for both are the picture of health. They have taken off superfluous fat and put on muscle instead. Campbell has gained a little while Dull tips the scales at what he did when he left several months ago.

Campbell and Dull expect to leave soon for patrol duty in foreign waters, probably in the Mediterranean Sea. Guns were being mounted on their ship when they left. John P. Kephart, another Naval Reserve man from Connellsville, is at Norfolk but not with Campbell and Dull.

On their way home the two sailors, together with Scott Lysinger of the 110th Regiment Hospital corps, also on his way home to Connellsville, were entertained at dinner by a man named Taylor from Brownsville who was returning after accompanying a son to Washington to enlist in the Naval forces. They were figuring on investing some of their meagre funds in a couple of sandwiches when the Brownsville man played Good Samaritan.

LOCAL BOY ENLISTS IN AVIATION RESERVE CORPS

Harry Sinclair Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Rogers of Connellsville, who enlisted Friday in the Aviation Reserve Corps, has been sent to the School of Military Aeronautics, Cornell university. Mr. Rogers was graduated from the mechanical engineering class of 1912 in Pennsylvania State college, and has been employed as an engineer and estimator for W. F. Trimble & Sons company, North Side, Pittsburgh. His brother Walter is in the 110th Regiment Hospital Corps at Camp Hancock.

LOOK AFTER GIRLS

Women's Committee Will Secure Lodging For Those Coming to Washington. Women and girls seeking government employment in Washington are urged through the Women's Committee of the Council of National Defense, of which Dr. Anna Howard Shaw of Washington, D. C., is chairman, to come to Washington until after they have received an appointment and have secured proper lodging. Persons securing appointment in the service by getting in touch with the Women's Committee of Washington, will be aided in securing a desirable rooming and boarding house.

The government is in great need of typewriter operators, stenographers and typewriters, especially women, and persons wishing to take the civil service examination may secure information as to the date of holding the examination and other particulars, by calling at the city postoffice. All candidates having successfully passed the civil service examination are assured an appointment.

Christmas Vacation Begins 19th.

The holiday vacation of the Connellsville schools will begin Wednesday, December 19. The date for resumption of school has not been set by the board.

Board to Meet.

The monthly meeting of the board of trustees of the First Baptist church will be held tomorrow night in the church.

Receipts from all sources totaled $3,504.83. The balance of $62.81 has been turned over to the Carnegie library trustees for the maintenance of the monument.

LOCAL SOLDIERS LEAVE CAMP
HANCOCK WITH MERCURY AT 90;
FIND BLIZZARD RAGING HERE

When Scott Lysinger, a member of the 110th Regiment Hospital corps, and Corporal Charles Moore and Ross Tissue, members of Company D, 110th Regiment, left Camp Hancock, Augusta, Georgia, for home on Saturday the thermometer was hovering around 90 and the soldiers were running around with no more clothes than the censors allow. When they got to Virginia they found snow and on arriving in Connellsville faced an icy gale, snow and zero temperatures. A variation of 90 degrees in two days came as such a rude shock that it didn't have been home the soldiers say they would have started back South again.

All three Tenth men are looking fine, and say they feel the same way. Uncle Sam's boys are mighty well treated they say, in camp and everywhere else. Scott Lysinger was discharged twice by men on trains between Augusta and Connellsville.

Corporal Moore, who got in about 2:00 this morning, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Moore of 133 Morrell avenue. Tissue's home is in Mill Run.

POLICE BEGIN TO ROUND UP GERMANS
LIVING IN HALIFAX

Authorities Won't Say Whether
They Will Connect Them
With Explosion.

25,000 ARE NOW HOMELESS

Revised Casualty Figures Show 1,200
Known to Be Dead, and 2,000 More
Unaccounted For; Cemeteries Need
Grave Diggers for Victims' Burial.

By Associated Press.

HALIFAX, Dec. 10.—Wholesale arrests of German residents of Halifax were begun by police today. This action was taken under instructions from military authorities. Sixteen Germans were taken into custody within a short time. Military officers after an inquiry released a few of them. The others are in the county jail.

The authorities refused to disclose whether they had obtained evidence associating Germans with the explosion. A number of citizens of German birth heretofore have been allowed full liberty with the exception that they were required to report once a month.

HALIFAX, Dec. 10.—Revised figures were issued here today regarding casualties resulting from the explosion as follows:

Known dead, 1,200; unaccounted for, 2,000 dead which have been identified, 900; wounded, 8,000; homeless, 25,000.

Burial of the victims of the explosion and fire here Thursday was begun today.

"Men wanted immediately at Fairview cemetery." This advertisement in the morning papers called attention to still another problem—finding men to dig graves for the hundreds of dead. Health authorities made it plain that burial must not be delayed. Laborers were assigned to the cemeteries and men who never had expected to do that sort of work assisted in the task.

There was a slight flurry of snow early today, but during the forenoon the skies brightened and clearing weather was indicated. Snow which covered every foot of the streets was a frozen mass at daylight. General weather conditions, however, were favorable, and soldiers were sent to the burned area to begin the search for hundreds of the bodies in the runs.

Officers to Meet.

A meeting of the newly elected officers of the local committee of the Women's Committee of the Council of National Defense will be held tomorrow night at the home of Dr. Katherine Wakelied, in East Crawford avenue, to appoint department committees.

Unfilled Steel Orders Decrease.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Unfilled orders of the United States Steel corporation on November 30 were $3,897,108 less according to the monthly statement issued today, a decrease of 112,589 from October 31.

KNUTTER FALLS
ASLEEP; FINISHES
A YARD OF SOCKS

Knitting socks is said to make a person drowsy.

A Scotland woman recently felt a slumbery feeling steal over her as she was working on a pair for the soldiers. Sinking into sleep, she was amazed to find later that she had completed a whole yard of perfectly knitted footwear.

DECEMBER CRIMINAL COURT TERM BEGINS
WITH MURDER TRIAL*Commonwealth Will Try to Fasten Masonston Killing on Frank Leppe.

Special to The Courier.

UNIONTOWN, Dec. 10.—When the first session of criminal court began at 10 o'clock this morning, Frank Leppe, alias Frank Chippetta, was arraigned before Judge E. H. Reppert on the charge of the murder of John Trozondelli near Masonston, March 2, 1917. He pleaded not guilty and the work of empaneling the jury was begun. General indications point to the selection of a jury within a short time.

Trozondelli was found dead in a boiler house near Masonston, following an alleged quarrel with the defendant and although there seem to be no eye-witnesses to the killing the Commonwealth claims to have a chain of evidence sufficient to fasten the crime on Leppe.

The defendant has a big array of legal talent acting in his behalf, State Senator W. E. Crow, and Attorneys W. C. McKean and Davis W. Hunsberger being his counsel.

As quickly as jurors are examined, and disqualified for the murder case, they are sent to the small court room and the grand jury room where Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen and J. C. Work are presiding and where the more trivial cases are being heard. The criminal list of cases has not been so heavy for years and every effort will be made by the holding court in the three rooms, to conclude this week's schedule.

Notwithstanding the hampering of traffic by the cold wave, most of the jurors called for this week were on hand at the roll call, with a few coming in a short time later.

Four jurors were selected this morning for the murder trial. They were: Ralph Kelly of Georges township, John Gallagher of Connellsville, Charles J. Gunn of Smithfield, and Albert Means of Connellsville.

TWO PNEUMONIA VICTIMS*Leisner and Vanderbilt Children Are Victims.

Pneumonia has claimed two victims, both children, in the past two days. Ruth Olive Kelly, eight months old, daughter of Archie and Clara Kelly, died Saturday at the family residence at Leisnering. Funeral services were held this afternoon with interment in Laurel Hill cemetery.

Louis Bonadio, three years old, son of Joseph and Mary Bonadio, died at the Bonadio home at Vanderbilt following a brief illness. Funeral from the house tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, followed by services at St. Rita's Italian Catholic church in First street, West Side. Interment in St. Joseph's cemetery.

To Consider Trustees' Petition.

UNIONTOWN, Dec. 10.—Referees J. G. Carroll has called a meeting of the attorneys, who represent judgments against J. V. Thompson for January 20, for the purpose of considering the petition of the trustees of Mr. Thompson for an order to sell at private sale, free and discharge of liens, coal lands in Jefferson township, Ecos Landing borough, Cumberland township and other districts near the Monongahela river in Greene county, consisting of about 7,500 acres.

Baltimore & Ohio Pays.

The Baltimore & Ohio railroad is paying the West End employees today. It is unusual for a pay to fall on Monday, but as another pay will come before Christmas, this one was probably moved up a day. The Connellsville division will be paid tomorrow and Wednesday.

Bowers at Court.

Acting Chief William B. Bowers is in Uniontown today at court. Patrolman T. M. Rull is covering the city alone.

GROCERS CALL HALT WHEN FAMILIES TRY TO STOCK UP ON SALT; BREAD DOWN A CENT

Alarmed by the sugar shortage of the last month, city residents have begun to stock up on other commodities until grocers have been compelled to call a halt by limiting the amounts sold. Though there is no shortage in the salt supply, the effects of German propaganda have been seen here in frantic efforts to secure a big quantity. Families have been detected sending children for a bag of salt every day for a week until they secured enough for almost a lifetime.

"Salt isn't scarce," one grocer stated, "but it will be if everybody lays away as much more than their needs as some families have."

Relief from the sugar shortage seems likely soon. Last week various grocers received small allotments which they distributed as judiciously as possible among their customers. One store which placed 1,000 pounds on sale Saturday afternoon got rid of it in two hours, allowing two pounds to a customer. At that there were many "repeaters."

Pittsburg bread dropped a cent last week, the 15-cent loaf selling at 14 and the 10-cent loaf for nine.

Housewives who sought to secure ingredients for Christmas fruit cake found grocers reporting a shortage.

Seven Given Hearings.

Four prisoners were given street sentences and two paid fines at police court hearings yesterday morning. Three left forfeits. One man arrested for disorderly conduct had $112 on him which he left with the police for safekeeping. Only one prisoner was arrested yesterday, he leaving a $5 forfeit.

SERIOUS SHORTAGE OF GAS COMES WITH SEVERE COLD WAVE*Mount Pleasant Entirely Out of Gas; Pressure Very Low Here.

The cold wave that struck Connellsville early Saturday morning, still held the city in its grip Sunday and today, with no promise of a letup by the weather man. For the first time in three years the Yough river was frozen over, ice forming on the whole surface between the Trough bridge and the Pennsylvania trestle.

With the cold wave at its height here, the Fayette County Gas company announced this morning that the supply is gradually decreasing, and at noon today there was but six pounds pressure in the city. Mount Pleasant is entirely without gas and at Scottsdale there is but a 2½ ounce pressure. Vanderbilt and Dawson are just about out.

At 7 o'clock this morning the gas pressure in the city was 68 pounds, dropping 62 pounds up to noon. All manufacturers using gas have been cut off and domestic consumers are getting the entire supply.

Over Sunday a deal was closed with the People's Natural Gas company of Philadelphia to connect five of their wells, located at Youngwood, with the Fayette county lines. This supply is expected to be diverted into the local lines at any time. It will temporarily relieve the shortage.

In spite of the fact that during the summer, German township wells have been opened, the increased supply has not been equal to the demand because West Virginia wells have not been able to supply the increased demand.

Under normal conditions the pressure of gas in this city is 125 pounds. This quickly fell when the cold spell set in and if there is not a letup soon, this city may be without gas.

The Fayette County Gas company is not the only concern short of gas. Some companies in the Pittsburgh district are in altogether worse shape, having no supply at all.

Church attendance fell yesterday, many persons remaining in on account of the cold winds. The temperature over Sunday as recorded by the official thermometer was three above zero and the same figures held good today. The coldest reported today was five below at Oniopolis with Sand Patch just one degree less—four below. Dawson reported two below and Dugbar four below.

On the outskirts of the city private thermometers registered two below. Many water pipes in the city were frozen but caution was used in the razing them out, as no fires were reported, as is usually the case. West Penn cars ran on time to schedule, but trains were delayed. The Baltimore & Ohio trains were running several hours off time.

The weather forecast today predicts snow flurries and continued cold tonight and Tuesday. About two inches of snow fell last night. Beneath this layer of snow, ice formed when the freezing weather set in Saturday night, making walking very difficult.

According to City Clerk A. G. Bixler, it was the wind Saturday which helped to freeze the Yough river. At other times when there is no wind, and the temperature is lower, the river does not freeze, and he says that the force of the wind blowing up little blizzards and holding the water back helped the ice to form. When the water was turned back in waves Saturday the surface resembled "white caps." Mr. Bixler says this allowed the undercurrents to be cooled and with the swiftness of the stream checked, ice readily formed.

In some cases where water pipes froze, they burst and flooded sections of several houses.

The hard wind Friday night demolished the band stand on the Fourth ward school lawn. The entire stand was blown over. Besides breaking some telephone wires and uprooting trees, no serious damage by the gale was reported.

Ten classes of the South Side school and all the pupils of the Fourth street, West Side, building, were dismissed this morning because of low gas pressure and consequent cold rooms.

Last December six above zero was the lowest mark of the month. The snow sweeper of the West Penn railway was used for the first time this season this morning.

Navy League Officers to Meet.

Officers of the Navy League will hold a meeting tonight in the offices of Dr. W. J. Bailey in the First national bank. The heads of all committees are requested to be present.

AGED VETERAN READY TO FIGHT IF NECESSARY

Jays He Feels as Frisky as a Young Colt—Lauds Tanlac.

"Seventy years ago, when the Mexican War came along, I tried to get a place as a drummer boy, but as I was only seventeen I was turned down," said Charles B. Robbins, 87 years, an expert gardener, 3741 Pitt-st. Philadelphia, Pa.

"I got my chance in the Civil War, though, enlisting in Company A, 6th Pennsylvania Cavalry. I fell as young and hearty right today as I did in '61, and believe there is some good fighting left in me yet if my country needs me. Until a couple of weeks ago I always walked six or ten miles a day, besides attending to my garden or business, without minding it one bit. Stomach trouble, which I have had for some time, finally got the best of me.

"However, I decided to try this Tanlac I had heard praised so highly. It took exactly one bottle to fix me up as good as new. My appetite had improved wonderfully, and I can eat without feeling bloated or suffer from sour stomach and heartburn. I go to bed nights knowing that I will sleep soundly until morning. Then I get up feeling as frisky as a colt. Those sick headaches have left me. My nerves are in better shape today than they have been in fifty years. Tanlac has put me back on the job. I have taken many medicines in my time, but I never ran across anything that worked so rapidly and efficiently as Tanlac.

Tanlac is being sold here by the Connelville Drug Co.

Tanlac can also be secured in Dunbar at D. C. Eason's Drug Store—Adv.

Garage Advance Prices For Storage and Washing of Cars; Four-Minute Men Urged to Appeal For Letters to the Soldier Boys; News Notes.

Special to The Courier.

SCOTSDALE, Dec. 10.—The Elks on Saturday evening gave a turkey dinner at their rooms here for Dr. C. W. McKee, who reports at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga. for training on Tuesday. Covers were laid for 75. The table had a beautiful centerpiece of fruit and the room was handsomely decorated in cut flowers. G. E. Huttelmaier presided as toastmaster and addresses were given by Edward M. Kennedy, Esq. J. P. Owens, Thomas J. Hill, Wilfred S. McKee, W. S. Clingerman, Hon. John A. Byrne, Dr. L. T. Gillette, Dr. John Hughes and Dr. Carl McKee of Pittsburgh, Walter F. Stauffej and James Keegan. All of the talks were on war topics. James Keegan paid a glowing tribute to the Red Cross, which was well received and roundly applauded. John R. Byrne paid a tribute to the Elks because of their democratic stand and manner in which they do their patriotic duties both in war time and peace. A roll call of the Scottdale Elks in the service was called. It follows: A. L. Byrne, 110th Regiment, Camp Hancock; Lieutenant John J. Kennedy, Company E, 110th Regiment, Camp Hancock; Lieutenant G. A. Wilson, Veterinary Camp, Chillicothe, Ohio; Charles W. Cunningham, 110th Regiment Band, Camp Hancock; Judson Van Horn, Company E, 110th Regiment, Camp Hancock; W. H. McLean, Company E, 320th Regiment, Camp Lee; Lieutenant C. W. McKee, Frank P. Miller, Company E, 320th Regiment and V. E. Galbraith, United States Navy.

The owners of the various garages in town have gone together and from now on will ask, 50 cents a day, 75 cents a night, two dollars a week, or six dollars a month for storage, $1.50 for washing a car and 35 cents for use of wash stands. The garages signing this notice are Welmer Motor Company, Central Auto Company, and Scottdale Auto Company.

Heard War Declared.

Ms. Lucy A. Poole returned on Saturday from a W. C. T. U. convention held in Washington, D. C. during the past week. She had the distinction of being the only person from Scottsdale present at the meeting of Congress when war was declared with Austria.

Art Piece for Red Cross

Valter Reese has donated a very beautiful piece of art to the ladies of the Everson unit of the Red Cross. It shows a Red Cross nurse administering help to a wounded soldier. On the poster is the inscription "The Red Cross Meets Today." The Everson ladies are very thankful to all those who are working so faithfully with them in their unit and will ask that they work just as diligently in the future as the work is just beginning rather than coming to a close with the Red Cross.

Write to the Soldiers.

Instructions have been received by the Four-Minute men to urge the writing to the soldier boys in camps and in the trenches. They suggest that mail be sent regularly several times a week by the boys from the folks back home. "Should the boy have no close friends make yourself his friend and write him at least twice each week, spur him to his duty and let him know that he is not forgotten," they say. The boys want letters as this brightens them up and gives them the proper spirit. Cited to these men

FOUR WEEKS IN HOSPITAL

No Relief—Mrs. Brown Finally Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio.—"For years I suffered so sometimes it seemed as though I could not stand it any longer. It was all in my lower organs. At times I could hardly walk, for if I stepped on a little stone I would almost faint. One day I did faint and my husband was sent for and the doctor came. I was taken to the hospital and stayed four weeks but when I came home I would faint just the same and had the same pains.
A friend who is a nurse asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it that very day for I was suffering a great deal. It has already done me more good than the hospital. To anyone who is as I was my advice is to stop in drug-store and get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before you go home."—Mrs. W. C. BROWN, 284 W. 12th St., Cleveland, Ohio.

Furniture Gives Pleasure to More People More Often Than Any Other Gift

Did you ever stop to consider how many people might enjoy a Christmas gift of furniture besides the one who received it? Everyone in the home shares in its enjoyment, and furniture is a gift that will serve as a lasting tribute to your good judgment in its selection, because it will endure; it isn't forgotten in a few days or weeks or months; its enjoyment is permanent, and in these days, when our government asks us to conserve, certainly the buying of impractical gifts is to be discouraged. Let this year's gifts be of a sensible nature. There are many such gift suggestions in this advertisement.

The registration of women, set for Friday of this week, is merely to provide a systematic method by which they can indicate their willingness to serve their country in a particular line or lines, for which they are best fitted—and as they themselves may select. The action is purely voluntary but it is expected that out of a desire to still further show their patriotism they will readily respond to the call for registration.

Of the hundred and more occupations, professions and trades in which women have shown their capabilities equal, and in many greatly superior, to men in these lines, they are asked to designate those in which they have had training and also those in which they prefer to serve, if needed. They are also given the privilege to state whether they are so circumstanced that they can, in case of a call upon them, give their time to their chosen work without charge, or with an allowance for expenses, or whether it would be necessary for them to be compensated. If they desire instruction or training for a particular form of activity which they wish to follow, they have but to indicate it and provision to that end will be made. They are not obliged to enlist for an indefinite period, but can state when their other duties will permit them to take up the special service as well as the length of time they can devote to it; also whether they can serve in their home town, in the United States, or go "anywhere."

It is thus seen that the matter of registration is wholly one of choice upon part of the women of our land. When the cards are tabulated at Washington the authorities will have before them definite information as to the number and location of women in every section of the country who can supply the government's need for any particular purpose within the scope of their knowledge, equipment and experience. From this date the government will be able to quickly mobilize a force or forces of women to meet any emergency that may arise. Thereafter all that is the object of the registration and all their is to it.

The women of the land have responded so wholeheartedly to the opportunities open to them in helping in the great work of war preparation, that there can be no doubt of the answer they will give to the request for them to register as further proof of their unselfish loyalty and patriotism.

SOUNDS LIKE A DEMOCRATIC SCHEME.

The Republicans of the nation are not likely to fall in force for the rather seductive suggestion that Republicans and Democrats unite in selecting only loyal men to either branch of the American Congress. There is a suspicious odor about that proposition, which our politically astute contemporaries, the Greenback Tribune, has been quick to detect. It sounds distinctly like a scheme to get Republican support for Democrats. It is an effort to give a ring of sincerity to the "stand of the president" appeal.

Loyalty of the Republicans in both branches of Congress has not been questioned and is not under suspicion. The signs of disloyalty are on the Democratic side. Every effort made by the Democratic administration to advance the war or to strengthen the military equipment and plans has had loyal Republican support and every sprig put into the wheels of war progress has been put there by those who claim allegiance to the party in power.

Disloyalty is not a Republican weakness. It is, however, a Democratic practice, as the last session of the American Congress well established.

The sea upon which the Columbus set sail today is not uncharted but even if it were they would find many friendly craft to pilot them safely and well-laden to the home port.

Lifting of the embargo on Christmas trees has lifted a burden of sorrow from many a kid's heart.

With "Win the war first, then prohibition," as their slogan the members of the W. C. T. U. have a proper idea of the relative size and importance of the tasks before themselves and our country.

Even the courts are doing "business as usual." In fact, they usually have a much busier business.

Since the Halifax holocaust and the sinking of an American torpedo destroyer we may expect another "Forward with God!" proclamation from the Kaiser.

The Welsh miners have set their brothers in other parts of the world an example in patriotism. By a very large vote they have refused to yield to the seductions of the pacifists to strike because the government asked them to assist in combating the strikers from military service out of the mines.

The boy who makes a start this week or next in buying war savings stamps from his own earnings is on his way to become a man who later can buy war bonds, or any other kind.

Help the Soldiers We Must Win This War

Seven years ago a famous European student of history prophesied that the next great war of the future would not be won by fighting but by famine. We are today fighting that war, and famine is indeed threatening to be its arbiter.

The men of England, Scotland, Ireland, France, Italy and Belgium—our allies—are fighting; they are not on the farms. The production of food by these countries has therefore been greatly reduced. Even before the war it was much less than the amount consumed. The difference came more largely from other countries than from America. Now, this difference is greater than ever, and at the same time, supplies can no longer come from most of the other countries. They must come from America. Therefore, our allies depend on us for food as they have never depended before, and they ask us for it with a right which they have never had before. For today they are doing the fighting, the suffering and dying—in our war.

We MUST send them the food they have to have. We WILL send it. But we can only do it by a wise and loyal economy of food on the part of every one of us. We must stimulate our food production, organize our food handling, eliminate all the waste possible, substitute as largely as possible other foods for wheat, beef, pork, sugar, and reduce consumption where it is excessive.

To accomplish these things is the problem of the United States Food Administration. But this accomplishment can come only from the combined personal and voluntary service of all the people of the land. To that end we want all the people to join the Food Administration. No fees or dues; merely a promise to help.

Ambulance Blown Over.
On Saturday one of the heaviest wind storms that has ever visited the town swept over the town. Windows were smashed, the tramway in Coxes' restaurant was blown in and a large plate glass window in Sallie Boyer's restaurant demolished. The roof and smoke stack blew off the boiler house at the Polecat works and struck Robert Burns on the head, cutting his head very badly. The ambulance was called from the Memorial hospital to take Burns to the hospital and as they were traveling along the road that was unprotected, the wind came so strong that the ambulance was blown over. In the ambulance were Ralph Snowden and Steve Yuskio who escaped uninjured. The tenders on the ambulance were broken.

Go to Camp.
J. McD. Bryce and daughter, Mrs. Helen Barnhart, have gone to Camp Hancock to visit Captain Gerard S. Bryce.

Tomorrow Miss Edna Goodrich is featured in the new southern story, full of the little mannerisms and prettinesses that go to make up southern plantation atmosphere. ### BOOST STAMP SALE

Pennsylvania to Sell U. S. Certificates at Ticket Offices.

At the request of the government, and in order to assist in the raising of funds for carrying on the war, the Pennsylvania railroad has completed arrangements for placing on sale the new war savings stamps and thrift stamps at ticket offices and in its shops, freight stations and in the various departments on the lines east and west of Pittsburgh.

Every ticket agent on the entire system, except where located in the immediate vicinity of a postoffice, will have the stamps for sale, and will keep on hand, at all times, a sufficient supply to accommodate investors. It was not thought necessary to do this where postoffices are near at hand, as the government will sell the stamps direct at those points.

NON-CATHOLICS TO ASSIST K. OF C. IN WAR DRIVE

Committee Accepts Proffered Services of 10 Representative City Men.

RALSTON TELLS OF WORK

Speaks From Observations While on Visit to His Son, Sergeant Clark Ralston at Camp Lee; Father Burns Also, Speaks of K. of C. Efforts.

The Knights of Columbus canvassing committee met in the Parochial school auditorium last evening and completed arrangements for the big war drive that is to begin today. J. W. Ralston acted as chairman and spoke very enthusiastically about the splendid work being done by the K. of C. and the Y. M. C. A. at Camp Lee, as observed by him while on a visit recently to his son, Sergeant Clark C. Ralston.

The plan and scope of the work being conducted by the Knights of Columbus and the Y. M. C. A. at all the cantonments and camps in the United States and in France were ably outlined by Father Burns. He called particular attention to the great amount of good the recreation centers are doing to make the soldiers' lives really fit for the more arduous duties that they will face when on the battlefield and to their absolute non-sectarian character. He expressed the belief that many non-Catholics would be glad to assist with their contributions and labor in making the Knights of Columbus war fund drive a complete success.

The various teams will report the contributions daily and they will be published in the papers of the following day.

Word has been received by the committee that many non-Catholics will be very glad to serve the various ward committees and the following have been appointed from a selected list handed in:

M. B. Pryce, S. J. Harry, W. E. Rice, W. D. McGinnis, A. W. Hart, Thomas Cunningham, Logan Rush, W. A. Furlong, George Snyder and James Darr. The Hungarians have also taken considerable interest in the campaign and have requested publication of the following committee that will solicit funds from their countrymen in the lower Connelville coke region: Andrew Todd, Trotter; Frank Bolsh Adelaide; Joseph Szepesi; Leisenring No. 1; Joseph Josef, Davidson; Louis Putnoky, Leisenring No. 3; Steve Zaborsky, Star Junction; John Dabber, Whitsett. This committee will work in conjunction with other teams in their districts.

They were neatly wrapped in a khaki handkerchief and brown paper, and fastened with attractive stickers. To each box was attached a Christmas card bearing the season's greeting. The fruit cake was baked by Mrs. B. L. Carson of the Junction house.

The women of Star Junction have been earnestly working for the Red Cross and have accomplished excellent results. They are anxious to do their bit by knitting, sewing and assisting in any other work in connection with the Red Cross. Every package sent out by the women will bring happiness to some soldier boy on Christmas day.

QUARREL OVER TURKEYS

Somerset County Farmer and Banker Dispute Ownership of Gobblers.

Alvin Fritz, a prominent Somerset county farmer, has made a charge of theft against his neighbor, Lezal Ash, president of the Peoples State Bank, at Boswell, and supervisor of Jenner township. Justice A. Kent Miller, before whom the case was heard, tried in vain to effect a settlement and a costly legal battle in court is promised.

The dispute is over the ownership of five turkeys, the prosecutor alleging that Ash took five of his flock and sold them in Johnstown. Ash says that the five turkeys in question were members of his flock and that they had strayed from his farm and joined the flock owned by Fritz.

TALKS JURY SERVICE

Judge Heppert Tells Why It Is Duty Not to Be Evaded.

When the grand jury made their final return to the court at Uniontown Saturday, Judge E. H. Heppert complimented them on their faithful work during the week, and made some timely remarks as to jury service. He stated that while we are sending our boys to the battle front to make the world safe for democracy, it is important to make Fayette county safe, and that the service rendered by a jurymen was an important one. Many try to evade this duty, he said, which should always be cheerfully and efficiently rendered.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach trouble.

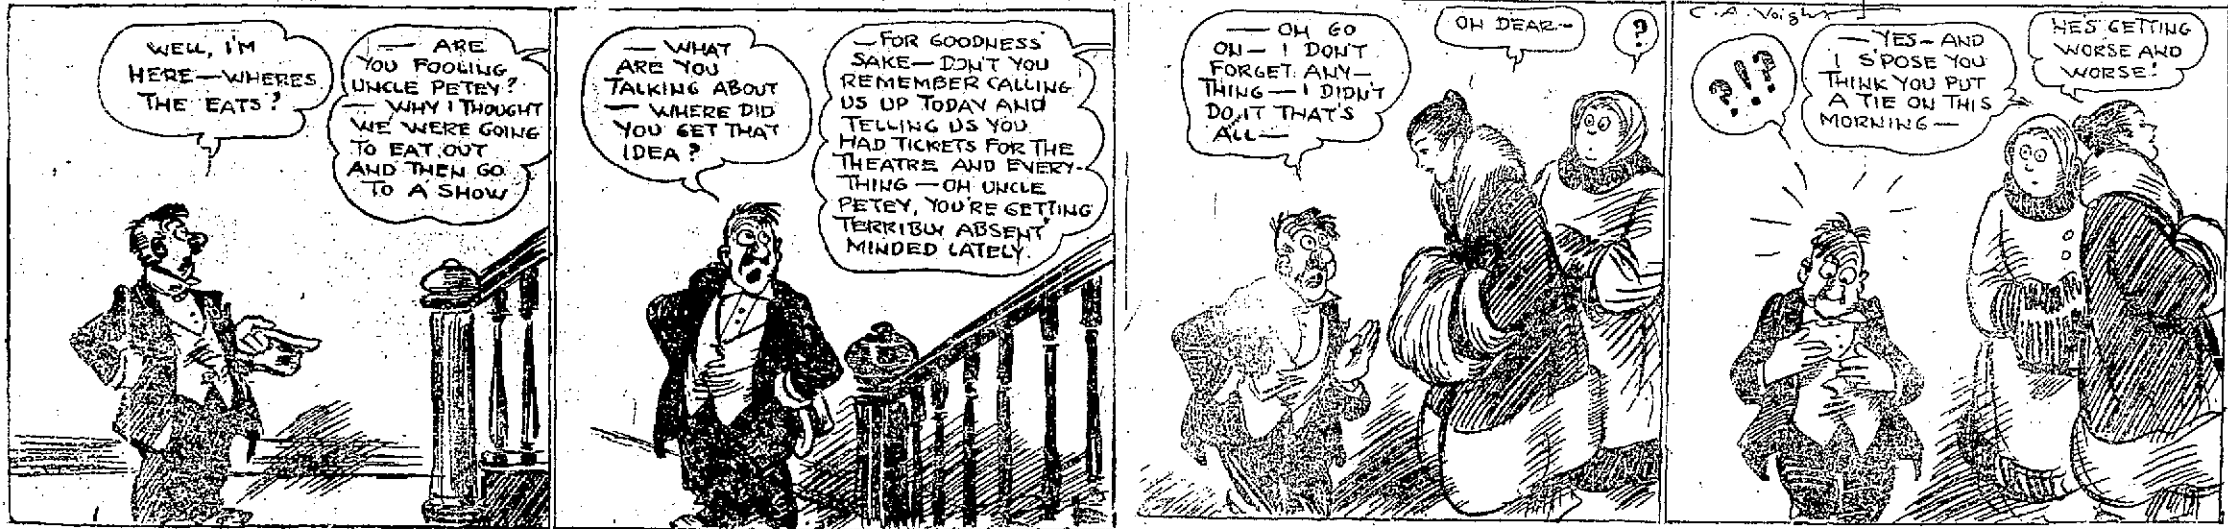

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a pure vegetable compound and with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

CHAPTER XVII.

Marthy. BILLY LOUISE led the way down the gorge, through the meadow, and along the orchard to the little gate. The Cove seemed empty and rather forlorn, with the wind creeping up the river and rattling the dry branches of the naked fruit trees.

She stopped for a minute on the doorstep, hesitating before she opened the door. Behind her, Senbeck drew close as if he would shield her from something; perhaps he, too, felt the deadly quiet and emptiness of the place.

Billy Louise opened the door and stepped into the kitchen. She stopped and stood still, so that her slim figure would have hidden the interior from the eyes of Senbeck had he not been so tall. As it was, she barred his way so that he must stand on the step outside.

By the kitchen table, with her elbows on the soiled oilcloth, sat Marthy. Her uncombed hair hung in wigs about her head; her hard old face was lined and gray, her hard eyes dull with brooding. Billy Louise, staring at her from the doorway, knew that Marthy had been sitting like that for a long, long time.

She went over to her diffidently. Hesitatingly she laid her gauntleted hand on Marthy's stooped shoulder. She did not say anything. Marthy did not move under her touch, except to turn her dull glance upon Senbeck.

"Go in," she said stolidly. "What'd you come for?"

"Miss MacDonald will perhaps explain."

"She ain't got nothin' to explain," said hard, old Marthy with grim finality. "I'll do what explainin' is to be done. I'm in. Don't stand there like a stump. And shut the door. It's cold as a barn here, anyway."

"Oh, Marthy!" cried Billy Louise, with the sound of tears in her voice. "Don't oh Marthy me," said the harsh voice flatly. "I don't want no Marthyin' nor no sympathy. Well, old man, you're here to collect, I s'pose. Take what's in sight; 'tain't none of it yours, far's I know, but anything you claim you kin have, 'er all me. I've lived honest all my days an' worked for what I got. I've harbored thieves in my old age and trusted them that wa'n't fit to be trusted. I've allus paid my debts, Senbeck. I'm willin' to pay now for bein' a fool."

"Where's Charlie?" Billy Louise leaned and whispered the question.

"I don't care, and I don't care. He's pulled out—him an' that breed. I'll have 'em pay you for seven growned cattle I never seed till yistday, Senbeck. You can set yer own price on 'em. I ain't sure, but I've got an idee they was shot by night an' dumped in the river. You can set yer price. I've got rheumatiz so bad I couldn't go 'n' put a stop to nothin'—but—"

"Oh, Marthy!" Billy Louise was shivering and crying now. "Marthy! Don't be so—so hard. It was all Charlie—"

"Yes," said Marthy harshly. "It was all Charlie. He was a thief, an' I was sech a simple-minded old fool I never knowed what he was. I let him go ahead, an' I set in the house with a white apron tied on me an' thought I was havin' an easy time. I set here and let him rob my neighbors that I ain't never harmed er cheated out of a cent, and soon's he thought he was found out, he—left ole Marthy to look after herself. Never so much as fed the hogs or done the milkin' first! Looky here, Senbeck! You'll git paid back; an' I'll take your fingers fer what I owe, but if you git after Charlie, I'll—kill yuh. You let 'im go. I'm the one he hurt most—and I ain't goin'—"

She laid her frowny old head on her arms, like one who is utterly crushed and dumb.

"Oh, Marthy!" Billy Louise knelt and threw her arms around Marthy's shoulders.

Marthy's chin began to quiver. Her lips sagged with the pull of her aching heart. For the third time in her life Billy Louise saw big, slow tears gather in Marthy's hard blue eyes and slide down the leathery seams in her cheeks.

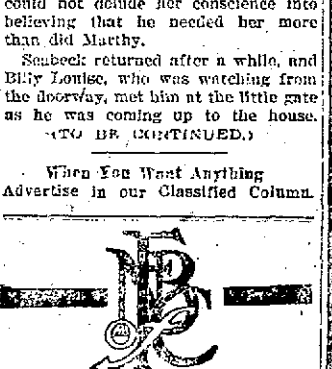

Billy Louise looked, found her vision blurring with her own tears, and turned from the room.

Senbeck was gone somewhere on his horse. Billy Louise guessed shrewdly that he was down in the meadows, looking over the cattle and trying to estimate the extent of the thievery. She put Blue in the stable and fed him, with that half-mechanical habit of attending to the needs of one's mount, which becomes second nature to the range-herd. She would not go on to the Wolverine; that needed no decision; she accepted it at once as a fact. Marthy needed her now more than anyone. More even than Ward, though Billy Louise hated to think of him there alone and practically helpless. But Marthy must have her tonight. Marthy was facing her bitterest sorrow since Minervy died, and Marthy was old. Ward, Billy Louise reminded herself sternly, was not old, and he was facing happiness—so far as he or anyone knew. She wanted very much to be with Ward, but she could not delude her conscience into believing that he needed her more than did Marthy.

Senbeck returned after a while, and Billy Louise, who was watching from the doorway, met him at the little gate as he was coming up to the house.

SMITHFIELD, Dec. 10.—Edward Ford and Thomas Board returned Friday evening from Camp Lee, Va., where they visited their sons, W. E. Ford and Howard Board, and other boys from Smithfield in that camp. They shared the boys' fare while there and say it was ample, both in quantity and quality. The boys are undergoing intensive training. They have a three-mile charge every morning at a double quick step, against an imaginary enemy in which they have to jump ditches and other obstructions in their line of charge. Some of the little fellows in the front rank cannot make the jump and land in the ditch, while the tall ones in the rear rank clear it, jumping over the heads

THE PARAMOUNT.

"MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY"—A five part Metro attraction, in which Madam Petrova, the celebrated actress, is seen in the role of a novelist, is being presented today. "More Truth Than Poetry" is a society drama based on domestic infidelity. The story has an additional interest because it has been written by the star herself. Vera, daughter of Daniel Matland, the steel king, marries Blair, an easy going young lawyer and is cut off by her father with a small allowance. A few months later Blair becomes famous by securing the acquittal of one of his friends, who has killed his wife's lover, basing his plea on the unwritten law. He then succumbs to the fascinations of another woman. Vera learns of the infidelity and shoots Blair. At her trial her lawyer is pleading for mercy for her when she explains that she does not want mercy, but justice. Madame Petrova gives a fine interpretation both of the novelist and of Vera, assisted by Mahlon Hamilton. Thursday Alice Brady, the popular screen star will be seen in "The Maid of Belgium," a five part world feature. Friday and Saturday Mae Marsh the famous and charming actress will be featured in "Polly of the Circus," a Goldwyn production.
